RECITALS at ANN GOODMAN RECITAL HALL

Performing in a Young Musicians in Concert (YMC)

YMCs are scheduled for Sunday afternoons in Ann Goodman Recital Hall, November to May. Private-lesson students may perform when ready, as determined by their teacher. Teacher and parent should be in touch to schedule a mandatory preview and performance date. Following that, the teacher must complete a YMC Request Form online. YMCs are programmed on a first come, first served basis, and are limited to 45 minutes. Students scheduled to perform must remain for the full duration of the recital. Preview time and space are subject to change. Parents should consult directly with the teacher first about updates.

Playing a YMC Preview

Students scheduled to perform in a YMC are required to play an informal preview the week preceding the scheduled concert date. Previews provide students the opportunity to play through their recital pieces at/with the recital piano in the recital space – usually Ann Goodman Recital Hall. Previews are held in AGRH on Sundays at 9am or Tuesdays at 5:45pm. A student may be asked to play more than one preview until ready to perform formally.

Requesting a YMC Accompanist

Lucy Moses School will provide a professional accompanist for one lesson rehearsal, the preview, and the concert. The teacher must include the accompanist requests on the YMC Request Form. For students playing advanced repertoire, additional rehearsals may be scheduled for a fee. To hire an accompanist for additional rehearsals beyond those provided, please call our offices at 212 501 3360 for more information.
